Shepherd:

What does the Bible say about trusting God in difficult times such as losing your job?... There are numerous stories of people enduring trials in the Bible, and the testing of faith that occurs with uncertainty and despair.... The question is not whether we will face tribulations in our life, but how will we respond when they arise?... Do we trust that "for those who love God all things work together for good"?

Angel 1:

Scripture reassures us that we can have peace with God through faith if we truly believe... Be inspired by, saying "Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ... Through Him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. ...More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us."

Angel 2:

The following story is from Saint Luke's Gospel. It is about a man struggling to make a living. His name is Simon who we call Peter his normal job is a fisherman and he was not catching fish that night he was struggling to make ends meet. Identify yourself with Simon who is struggling to make a living then Jesus helps. Ultimately Simon decides to follow Jesus. Here is the story about Jesus Calls His First Disciples

Shepherd:

Luke 5:1-11

1 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God,

2 he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.

3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

5 Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets."

6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break.

7 So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

9 For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken

10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people."

11 When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Angel 1:

As you saw Simon pick the side of the boat that Jesus asked him to let down the net so is job search...

In any job search, you must sort through many job postings to find the ones that are right for you... Network aggressively and talk to people. You will need to push yourself to get out there, talk to people, and engage in some serious self-promotion. Follow these guidelines to narrow in on the best search.

1. Start by deciding what you want in a job.
2. Research job titles and descriptions.
3. Review salary trends.
4. Identify your must-haves.
5. Experiment with different job searches.
6. Use advanced search tools to avoid the noise.
7. Conduct company research.
8. Determine if you meet the requirements.

Shepherd: (Tip from Maurie Backman)

Maybe you botched a major project at work, and that made your boss unhappy.... Or maybe, despite your best efforts to excel on the job, you just did not end up meeting expectations.... Getting fired can be a blow to your self-esteem, and it can also put you in a tricky position as far as getting rehired goes.... If you have been fired, you need a new job, and your resume will generally be the ticket to it.... To that end, you will need to make sure that document reads well, is in good shape, and reflects your most recent experience.... Spend some time reviewing your resume and making changes as needed, as it will increase your chances of getting hired again.

Angel 2:

Visualize Jesus reviewing your resume and cover letter and the Holy Spirit give you insights of what to keep or change... Do not be stressed be confident and know you are doing the best you can, and God sees it... Keep praying to God.

Meditation for a Job interview... Use music therapy to meditate... Visualize Jesus walking with you to the interview... Search the web on common interview questions and prepare yourself before going to the interview... Rehearse the interview in your meditation. Your best bet in this regard is to be honest, but also, emphasize some of the things that experience taught you.

Angel 1:

The day you are going to the interview dress appropriately... Visualize Jesus standing next to you and His hand on your shoulder, ...listen intently to the manager, and take your time answering the question... Do not brag about yourself just state your qualifications and the projects you succeeded in doing... Show you are a perfect fit... You may say I may not meet all your demand, but I have a history of overcoming my weakness and respond to job demands.

Do not, under any circumstances, badmouth your former boss or company during an interview.... If you were fired over a personality clash between you and your previous manager, you can say that you did not mesh well in a work setting -- but leave things at that.

Angel 2:

Know the gravity from point A to point B is not the same due to all the stars in the universe... thus the deflection from point A to point B is not the same... thus the behavior is not the same... and so you are special and unique and have something to contribute... you have special talents and only you can give no one else can... Your contribution is needed in the world and we all have a mission to do. In a job interview convince the interviewer you have what it takes,... and you are the one to advance the company or the restaurant or the store or the contactor or a hospital and so forth... Know that the work in city or in suburb or in farms never ends and there is a dream job for you.

All:

In Jesus Name we Pray.... Amen
